Welcome to the first episode of the Amazing Travel Podcast, brought to you by Raving Globetrotters.

In this episode, we'll travel to New Zealand, chat it up with some locals, and meet some members of New Zealand's indigenous people, the Maori,

...and we'll even go on an audio tour of the picturesque landscapes where the epic Lord of the Rings trilogy was filmed.

New Zealand is clean, green, and the undisputed crown jewel of the Southern Hemisphere.

Now that we've outlined the show, let's get started!
